Van Gilmer who has a long experience in race relations and is a RAIN member will introduce the topic of having conversations about race. Participants will then move into smaller break-out groups which will also be led by RAIN members to help build skills to navigate conversations concerning race and return to a final discussion facilitated by Van.

About RAIN

RAIN strives to be a catalyst for racial and cultural diversity and understanding. RAIN provides resources for those who want to learn more about race relations and hosts educational forums regarding race.

About Van Gilmer

Van Gilmer has been a board member of the Together is Better Alliance since 2019. He is committed to racial justice and unity and is involved with several other like-minded organizations in the northern suburbs of Chicago.
