FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Pastels and Watercolors by Lynn Miller on Display in Y's Community Gallery

Northbrook, Illinois: June 2016 – A collection of pastel and watercolor paintings by Lynn Miller are on display during the month of June at the North Suburban YMCA's Community Gallery.

Ms. Miller is a retired teacher who taught art in Glenview School District #34. She has been an artist and educator for over 30 years. Currently she enjoys painting in her studio, taking art workshops, and exhibiting her paintings in regional and national shows.

"My work reflects the elements that attract me to the scene, and its emotional impact," commented the Lake Zurich-based artist. "I paint visually pleasing subjects like flowers and landscapes because of the positive impact of such images on the viewer and me."

The paintings in the show are for sale, and a portion of the purchase price will benefit the North Suburban YMCA's Visual Arts Program. The Y offers art classes for all ages this summer – learn more and register now at www.nsymca.org.

About the North Suburban YMCA

The YMCA is a charitable organization that relies on donations to make services available for all families and individuals in its 15-city region. All board members are volunteers, who donate their time, talents and financial resources. Located at 2705 Techny Road in Northbrook, the YMCA has served the northern suburbs of Chicago for over 45 years. The Y is about youth development, healthy living, and social responsibility, providing programs and services that address the needs of our diverse community and are accessible to all. For more information or to make a donation, contact Kim Nyren at 847-272-7250 or knyren@nsymca.org, or visit www.nsymca.org.
